God's Work of Salvation

God's work of salvation is the focus of this weekend's readings. From the prophetic event of Isaiah to Jesus' understanding of the human condition in Hebrews, concluding with Jesus paying our ransom in Mark, God is in control. There may be failings and misunderstandings along the way. We may move away from God, but at our conversion. God leads us back. Like James and John, we may let greed and power blur our vision of what Jesus wants us to know about the Kingdom; but tirelessly we are taught and re-taught what life in the Kingdom will be. Jesus has paid our ransom to ensure that we will share in the Kingdom. It is not unusual to think of Jesus' ransom as a punishment that he endured. However, it is much more accurate and more like Jesus, for us to recognize ransom as God's gift to us.

Primera lectura: Isaías 53:10-11

Segunda lectura: Hebreos 4:14-16

Evangelio: Marcos 10:35-45

La Obra Divina De Salvación

La obra de Dios de la salvación es el enfoque de las lecturas este fin de semana. Desde el acontecer profético de Isaías hasta la visión de Jesús sobre la condición humana en Hebreos, y terminando con el rescate que paga Jesús por nosotros en san Marcos, Dios está al mando. Puede que ocurran caídas e incomprendiones por el camino. Puede que nos alejemos de Dios, pero Dios nos trae de vuelta a su lado mediante la conversión. Al igual que Santiago y Juan, a veces dejamos que la avaricia y el poder empañen nuestra visión de lo que Jesús nos quiere enseñar sobre el Reino; pero sin tregua nos enseña y nos repite cómo ha de ser la vida en el Reino. Jesús ha pagado por nuestro rescate para garantizar que compartamos el Reino con él. No es raro que pensemos sobre el rescate que pagó Jesús en términos de un castigo que tuvo que sufrir. Sin embargo, es más acertado y más como Jesús, reconocer que el rescate es un regalo de Dios para nosotros.

On solid ground again

(Testimony of a cancer healing— Lioba Radke,
20 years consecrated in the Catholic community
'Koinonia John the Baptist' has lived in Jerusalem since 2006)

Until now I knew of cancer only by hearsay. It is true that we have had brother and sisters who have suffered from this disease, in particular Fr. Emanuele. However, I had never experienced this serious illness first hand. But all this changed unexpectedly this year. Last autumn I began having some discomfort in my colon. Initially I blamed it on a haemorrhoid problem. I tried to treat myself on my own, for the simple reason that it is a body part that we do not like to talk about, let alone have examined. I managed to get my symptoms under control relatively successfully. However on the morning of Christmas Eve I had a severe haemorrhage. In shock, and rather worried, I finally went to the doctor. He gave me a cream and told me that I would need to have a colonoscopy in the future. Once again things went relatively well and so I was happy to have left with so little. I continued to have slight pain and mild discomfort but, because I was busy, I had no time to dwell on it or do anything about it. Three months later, on Palm Sunday, I had a strong spontaneous haemorrhage for the second time. This time the bleeding continued with no sign of stopping. I went immediately to Accident and Emergency and to the GP the next day. The first available appointment for the specialist was six weeks away. At this point, the community decided to send me for further testing in Germany. I left on Easter Sunday, after the Mass of the Resurrection..

Continued in next week bulletin.....
