God's Word Today

Being a disciple of Christ means being an imitator of Christ. When we hear a Gospel passage such as today's, we may think that we could never come close to imitation Christ. After all, he had such miraculous power. The story of the cleansing and curing of the leper may have something deeper to teach us. In the Lord's time, people were simply not to go near a leper. To touch a leper was unthinkable. It rendered the person ritually impure and susceptible to contagion. Just listen to today's first reading to find out how lepers were to be treated. Jesus goes beyond the usual boundaries and, moved with pity, heals the man. We are called to be like Christ—to move beyond those boundaries that prevent healing and reconciliation from occurring. Some of these boundaries we set up ourselves. As the cleansing word of God is proclaimed today, let us pray that God will help us to reach across established boundaries to embrace and be reconciled with those whom today's world sees as "unclean."

La Palabra De Dios Hoy

Ser discípulo de Cristo significa ser imitador de Cristo. Cuando escuchamos un pasaje del Evangelio como el de hoy podríamos ni siquiera acercarnos a imitar a Cristo. Después de todo, él tenía un tremendo poder milagroso. La historia del leproso que fue limpio y curado pudiera tener algo más profundo que enseñarnos. En los tiempos del Señor la gente no se acercaba a un leproso. Tocar a un leproso era inconcebible, pues esa persona se convertía en alguien ritualmente impuro y susceptible al contagio. Sólo con escuchar la primera lectura de hoy sabrás cómo eran tratados los leprosos. Jesús va más allá de los límites de siempre, movido por la compasión, cura al hombre. Estamos llamados a ser como Cristo, de ir más allá de esos límites que impiden que una curación y una reconciliación sucedan. Nosotros mismos imponemos algunos de esos límites. Al escuchar la palabra de Dios proclamada hoy oremos para que Dios nos ayude a cruzar los límites establecidos de manera que podamos aceptar y reconciliarnos con todas aquellas personas que el mundo de hoy ve como "impuros".
