Tradition

Tradition is long human memory set, not in stone, hut in human interaction. Without this active memory, the bonds of relationship and affection fray and fall apart. Communities dissolve as surely as neglected buildings do. After participating in events, celebrations, and even small rituals, we remark about how good it is to gather and remember. Today's readings and three ways we remember the covenant bonds that create us as a people and the obligation and responsibility that express the innermost attitude of soul. You are mine. I am yours. These are God's words that created a people as surely as "Let there be light" created the sun and moon and all the stars.

Tradición

La tradición es la memoria humana a largo plazo, mantenida no en piedra sino en la interrelación humana. Sin esta memoria afecto se debilitan y se deshacen. Las comunidades se separan tan de seguro como caen los edificios. Abandonados. Después de participar en acontecimientos, celebraciones y hasta en pequeños ritos, comentamos lo bueno que es el reunirnos y recordar. Las lecturas de hoy nos recuerdan aquellos fundamentos que van más hondo que la voluntad humana para relacionarse. Hoy escuchamos sobre la voluntad divina de relacionarse con nosotros—de ser nuestro Dios tal como nosotros somos llamados a ser el pueblo amado de Dios.

Beginning Experience

The loss of a spouse through death, divorce or separation is one of life's most traumatic experiences; often resulting in feelings of loneliness and grief. When those feelings remain, it can be overwhelming and hard to move forward. The Beginning Experience weekend is time to focus on you...to feel understood by peers and experience a sense of peace and a renewed hope for the future.

The next weekend is on Long Island on September 11-13, 2015
For information and reservations, call Mary at (516) 413-6209,
Jean (631) 903-0973, or John at (516) 822-0635
