La Palabra De Dios Hoy

¿Alguna vez has esperado algo por mucho tiempo? Las lecturas que nos brindan las Escrituras en esta fiesta de la Sagrada Familia concentran nuestra atención en cuatro personas ancianas: Abraham, nuestro padre en la fe, su esposa Sara, Simeón y Ana la profetisa. Abraham y Sara confiaron en la palabra de Dios aunque lo que se les había prometido parecía absolutamente imposible esto es, un hijo aunque ambos habían ya pasado de la edad de engendrar y dar a luz Ellos esperaron muchos años para tener descendencia. Su hijo Isaac fue el cumplimiento de la promesa que Dios les había hecho. Simeón y Ana eran dos ancianos que estaban casi constantemente en el templo. También ellos esperaban el cumplimiento de una promesa. Ellos aguardaban la venida de Cristo el Señor. Hoy escuchamos lo que sucedió cuando José y María traen al Niño Jesús al templo para consagrarlo al Señor. El Adviento es el tiempo durante el cual esperamos la venida del Señor. Al igual que Abraham, Sara, Simeón y Ana, recibamos la promesa cumplida de Dios, recibamos al Señor Jesús presente en la palabra proclamada en este día.

God's Word Today

Have you ever waited for something for a very long time? The Scripture readings for this feast of the Holy Family focus our attention on four elderly people: Abraham, our father in faith, his wife Sarah, Simeon, and the prophetess Anna. Abraham and Sarah trusted in the word of God, even though what was promised seemed absolutely impossible—a child, even though each was past the age of generating and giving birth to a child. They waited for many years for an offspring Isaac, their son, was the fulfillment of God's promise to them. Simeon and Anna were two older people who were in the temple almost constantly. They, too, waited for the fulfillment of a promise. They awaited the arrival of Christ the Lord. Today we hear what happens when Joseph and Mary bring the child Jesus to the temple to consecrate him to the Lord. Advent was the time during which we waited for the coming of the Lord. Like Abraham, Sarah, Simeon, and Anna, let us welcome the fulfilled promise of God—let us welcome the Lord Jesus present in the word proclaimed this day.
