Feeding the World

With today's two accounts of feeding miracles and the psalm response about the Lord's hand feeding us, it is easy to gloss over the marvelous hymn in Ephesians. It is built around the most potent biblical numbers; one, three, and seven. The core of it is the word "one expressed seven times. Three of these describe the church: one body, one Spirit, one hope; the next three are the foundations of the church: one Lord (Jesus), one faith, one baptism. All of these are bound up together in the one Father of all. While we might feel daunted by the prospect of duplication the wonders worked by Elisha and Jesus in the feeding of multitudes. Ephesians gives us a more realistic way to live and "feed: others as the church: by living in humility and gentleness, by acting with patience, bearing with each other in love, and always seeking and striving to preserve unity through peace, Who among us cannot increase the way we "feed" the church and the world by living this way? We are always called upon to "feed" the world in the literal sense; but our mission as church tells us that others are also fed by the way we live and act each moment of each day.

Alimentando al Mundo

Al oír las narraciones de cómo eliseo y Jesús multiplican los alimentos, y el salmo responsorial sobre como la mano del Señor nos alimenta, es fácil caer en la tentación de pasar por alto el maravilloso himno de la carta a los efesios en la Segunda lectura. El himno se centra en los números más potentes de la tradición bíblica: el uno, el tres y el siete. La medula del himno es el número uno. Repetido siete veces. Tres de ellas se refieren a la Iglesia: un solo cuerpo, un solo Espíritu, como también una sola es la esperanza. Los próximas tres son los fundamentos de la Iglesia: un solo Señor, una sola fe, un solo bautismo. Y todos estos se juntan en un solo Dios y Padre de todos. La idea de repetir los Milagros obrados por Eliseo y por Jesús al alimentar las multitudes nos deslienta, claro está, pero la carta a los efesios nos ofrece un modo más realizable de vivir como Iglesia y de alimentar a los demás en la Iglesia: ser siempre humildes y amables: ser comprensivos y soportarnos mutuamente con amor, y esforzamos en mantenernos unidos en el espíritu con el vínculo de la paz. ¿Quién de nosotros no puede "alimentar" a la comunidad de la Iglesia viviendo de esta manera? Es verdad que siempre estamos llamados a "alimentar" al mundo en el sentido literal de la palabra, pero nuestra misión como Iglesia también nos dice que a los demás también hay que alimentarlos por la manera en que vivimos y actuamos cada momento de cada día.

Things to do with kids in Red Hook.

1. After taking the Ikea Ferry (which is FREE on weekends), let the tots romp in the store's Småland Play Area in the lobby—you can even drop them off for up to an hour of supervised play
2. Check out the Ikea-run Erie Basin Park, a waterfront promenade with great views and plentiful seating
3. In summer, splash around the outdoor Olympic-size pool at the Red Hook Recreation Center—there's a separate sprinkler section for tots
4. Explore the historic, floating Waterfront Museum, which hosts frequent family performances by juggling clowns, vaudeville comics and swashbuckling pirates
5. Stroll Valentino Pier to take in spectacular views of downtown Manhattan and the Statue of Liberty
6. See what's on view at the Brooklyn Waterfront Artists Coalition, an artist-run gallery housed in a 25,000-square-foot Civil War-era warehouse
7. Go kayaking for FREE with the Red Hook Boaters in the summer months
8. Catch FREE, mostly family-friendly movies on Valentino Pier at the annual summer Red Hook Flicks series
9. Kick off festival season every spring with Puppetry Arts' annual Red Hook Family Festival at PS 15
10. Children of all abilities are welcome to romp in Extreme Kids & Crew's indoor sensory play space AMP during drop-in hours
11. Introduce the kids to syncopated rhythms at the annual Red Hook Jazz Festival, which takes place in June
12. Hit Brooklyn Crab for food and fun: Its massive backyard features an eight-hole miniature golf course, a beanbag toss and shuffleboard
13. Grab a Swingle at Steve's Authentic Key Lime Pies: a key lime pie tart, dipped in dark chocolate and frozen onto a Popsicle stick
14. Drop in to the Kentler International Drawing Space on Saturday mornings for a FREE Drawing Together workshop for kids
15. Mark your calendar for spring 2015, when one of Red Hook's few green spaces, Coffey Park, will unveil its multimillion-dollar makeover
16. Bring your banjos, ukuleles, harmonicas and spoons to Urban Meadow Community Garden's annual fall Hootenanny Jamboree
17. Bite into homemade brownies, cookies, whoopie pies and fluffy marshmallows at Baked
18. Marvel at live glassblowing at Pier Glass, which hosts open studio days
