From the life of Saint Camillus by his Companion

Serving the Lord in the brethren

Let me begin with holy charity. It is the root of all the virtues and Camillus’ most characteristic trait.

I can attest that he was on fire with this holy virtue—not only toward God, but also toward his fellowmen, and especially toward the sick.

The mere sight of the sick was enough to soften and melt his heart and make him utterly forget all the pleasures, enticements and interests of this world.

When he was taking care of his patients, he seemed to spend and exhaust himself completely, so great was his devotion and compassion.

He would have loved to take upon himself all their illness, their every affliction, could he but ease their pain and relieve their weakness.

Father, you gave Saint Camillus a special love for the sick. Through his prayers inspire us with your grace, so that by serving you in our brothers and sisters we may come safely to you at the end of our lives. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

– Amen.
